

CLASS AFLOAT HIGH SCHOOL ACADEMIC PROGRAM

The Class Afloat Academic program is characterized by an emphasis on experiential learning, and cross curricular connections that utilize the history, culture and geography of our voyage as well as the tall ship environment. Emphasis is placed on critical thinking, social responsibility and global citizenship.

- Accredited through the NS Department of Education and Early Childhood Development we offer the following suite of courses:

Mathematics and Science

- | | |
|----------------|-------------------------|
| ○ Oceans 11 | Academic Mathematics 11 |
| ○ Chemistry 11 | Academic Mathematics 12 |
| ○ Chemistry 12 | Pre-calculus 11 |
| ○ Physics 11 | Pre-calculus 12 |
| ○ Physics 12 | Calculus 12 |
| ○ Biology 12 | |

Languages and Humanities

- | | |
|-------------------|----------------------|
| ○ English 11 | Canadian History 11 |
| ○ English 12 | Global History 12 |
| ○ French 11/12 | Global Geography 12 |
| ○ Anthropology 12 | Political Science 12 |
| ○ Psychology 12 | |

- Class Afloat signature courses “Sociology of Community” and “Maritime Studies” (Recreation Leadership 12) make further use of our environment for learning and reflection
- High School Credits are transfer to CEGEP courses offered via Marie Victorin, (Montreal, QC)
- Small Class sizes: 3-12 students per class
- Daily study hall and extra help provided as needed.
- International student body represented by 8-10 different nationalities
- CAF graduates consistently admitted to their first choice post-secondary option